

About the Speaker: Gordon Graham

The founder of his own company, Gordon Graham provides educational materials and presents live seminars to organizations across the United States and Canada. Through his renowned training series, Gordon has been facilitating change for individuals and organizations for more than 30 years.

Graham is one of the most sought-after and well respected change agents in the areas of labor management and corrections. His background, communication skills and total commitment to the change process set him apart from the myriad of speakers and trainers in today's world.

Graham's clients report improvements in the areas of communication, product quality, productivity and employee involvement.

"Gordon's delivery, combined with a humorous and thought-provoking presentation, establishes an awareness that it's never too late for a new beginning," said Paul Loberg of Eagle Crest Properties.

Graham's programs have been implemented successfully in a variety of settings, and his approach reaches people from all backgrounds. Clients include corporate executives, union/management personnel, state and federal agencies, at-risk youth and prison inmates.
